

BATTALION COMMAND POST

Automated command systems

APPLICATION:

Unified Battalion Command Post provides:

- Automated process of air, sea and ground situation data receiving, gathering, and processing;
- Processing the data received from its own sensors and sensor stations;
- Receiving the data and commands from the higher command post;
- Sending reports and status to the superior command,
- Threat evaluation and weapon assignment (TEWA);
- Fire Command and Control of subordinate units;
- Creation and simulation of situations for the training of crew;
- Situation recording, archiving and displaying.

COMPOSITION:

- Towing vehicle (6x6, 8x8),
- Command shelter (Ops Cabin),
- Electric generator on a trailer,
- Auxiliary equipment.

