

HORIZONT

NBC protective mask

HORIZONT protective mask complete with a filter is intended specifically for efficient protection of respiratory organs, face and eyes against toxic gases, vapors, dust particles, smoke and mist depending upon the kind of a threaded filter. It must be used only in the atmosphere containing at least 17 % oxygen by volume. Mask satisfies demands from EN 136, for masks class 2.

TECHNICAL DATA:

- The HORIZONT protective mask covers face and gives complete protection of user without disturbing free movement of the head.
- The mask has a large field of vision.
- The facepiece is made of chlorobutyl rubber.
- Visor of the mask is made of polycarbonate glass and covers whole face.
- The standard filter connection, Rd 40 in accordance to EN 148-1, is designed on the left and right side of facepiece.
- Position of the mask on the face can be adjusted by the 6 elastic head harnesses easily.
- The mask has a speech membrane that gives index of voice clearness over 0,85.
- The mask is available in one size.
- Mask weight: max 600 g.
- Each element of the mask is easy for maintenance.
- Storage conditions: relative humidity $60 \pm 10\%$, temperatures from 5°C to 25°C .
- Individual packaging: aluminized plastic bag and cardboard box.
- Packaging for transportation: Cardboard box.
- Shelf life of original packaging in the prohibited conditions of storage is 15 years.

