

INTERVENTIONAL HELMET

Antiriot protection

Made of resistant and flexible polycarbonate with exceptional resistance to impacts and corrosive agents, the intervention helmet in combination with a transparent visor provides the optimal level of comfort and protection of the user's head. Stability of material characteristics in the temperature range from -30°C to +50°C.

- Large area of head protection, including the ear area
- Non-restrictive field of vision and ambient hearing
- Anatomical or flat-shaped visor with a thickness of 3 mm with the possibility of using a gas mask
- Easily adjustable system for positioning the helmet on the head
- Detachable natural leather neck protection
- Available in black, white and navy
- Available in one size fits all
- Available with different interior trim versions
- Compatible with gas mask

